Airframe Plant 30 is located in the NW section of Moskva, USSR, adjacent to Moskva Central Airfield; this airfield also serves as a test and flyaway field for aircraft produced at the plant.

[REDACTED] reveals clearly the continuing construction of a large workshop near the final assembly hall. This new workshop, now at least 500 feet long (approximate measurement), was under construction when observed in [REDACTED]. The pattern of the steel girders which have been erected indicates that the building will contain 3 large bays when completed. The construction of this building was preceded by the partial removal of a rectangular building adjacent to the final assembly hall and the construction of a small rectangular building immediately SW of the new workshop.

Aircraft observed at the plant and airfield on [REDACTED] included: 1 COOT, 1 COOT fuselage, 3 CRATE, 1 HOOK, 11 HOUND, and 2 small straight wing.
